

FIFTEENTH LEGISLATURE.

SKETCHES OF LEGISLATORS

AND STATE OFFICERS

1876-1878.

BY JOHN CARDWELL.

AUSTIN, TEXAS:
DEMOCRATIC STATESMAN-PRINT.
1876.

SEVENTY-FIRST DISTRICT.

County.—Bexar.

REPRESENTATIVE CHARLES L. WURZBACH was born in the Duchy of Baden, Germany, in 1835 ; came to Texas in 1846 ; was educated in Texas ; studied law ; was admitted to bar, and pursues the practice of his profession in the city of San Antonio, where he resides with his family.

Mr. Wurzbach served in the Confederate States Army, Green's Brigade, until in 1873, when he became aid-de-camp to General Haw's commanding defenses at Galveston, in which service he remained until the close of the war.

He is a Democrat ; was elected without opposition to the Legislature, and received 3650 votes.